

June 6 91
Linda

POSSIBLE CHARACTERISTICS OF INDIVIDUALS AT LEVEL V

Attainment of inner peace

Global view -- Respect for all of life

Awareness of global interdependence

Devotion to service -- living to give rather than to get

Giving up self-interest

Continuous willingness to give of oneself

Experiencing the joy of giving without a need for payback

Visionary -- other dimensions to their awareness

Listening to one's inner voice

Commitment to one's beliefs -- Living one's beliefs

Love in action

A clear sense of mission

A sense of one's special place in the Life Pattern

Wanting to make a difference in the world -- a profound sense of responsibility

An inspiration to others

Enormous compassion -- Seeing the good in all

Seeing depth in people, including injury or damage

Clarity

No inner confusion, conflict or self-doubt

Absence of fear

No self-consciousness or fear of failure

So focused that they can control their attention

Simplification

No desires

Absence of negative thoughts

Self-acceptance

Ability to put first things first

Endless energy

Transcending health problems

No dominance or dominion over others

Insight that one's own way may not be the way for everyone

Transcending the internalized values of the culture and society in which one has been reared

Becoming one's unique best Self

Seeking the good of the Whole: Being so identified with all of humanity that one does not seek an advantage for oneself or some portion over other parts of the whole.

Expansion of service so that it is truly noticeable